The New York Times upfront

Name _____ Class _____

CITE TEXT EVIDENCE

For use with "A Day on the Campaign Trail" on p. 14 of the magazine

Find the Evidence

After reading "A Day on the Campaign Trail," consider each question below. Use the organizer to record evidence from the text and to note where you found the evidence.

QUESTION:	EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT:	LOCATION (PAGE, COLUMN):
1. How does New Hampshire's early primary affect the extent to which candidates campaign there?
2. What are some ways that campaigning for president has changed in the past 150 years? What are some ways it has stayed the same?
3. Why are some people critical of the influence Iowa and New Hampshire have in the presidential nominating process?
4. According to Carly Fiorina, how has her experience in corporate America prepared her for politics?

SYNTHESIZE: Based on your notes above, write a one-paragraph response to question 2. Use both paraphrasing and direct quotations from the text.

Uses: copy machine, opaque projector, or transparency master for overhead projector. Scholastic Inc. grants teacher-subscribers to The New York Times Upfront permission to reproduce this Skills Sheet for use in their classrooms. ©2016 by Scholastic Inc. All rights reserved.