

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For use with "A Day on the Campaign Trail" on p. 14 of the magazine

A Day on the Campaign Trail

- 1. Why is New Hampshire considered a critical state for presidential candidates?
- 2. Do you think traditional town hall meetings still have a place in presidential campaigning? Why?
- 3. What does Professor Dean Spiliotes mean when he says "retail politics" is done "for national consumption"?
- 4. Based on what you've read, do you think the idea of "retail politics" is still relevant in the age of Twitter?