ANSWER KEY

QUIZ ►

Does Facebook Know Too Much?
1. [b] build profiles of potential voters.
2. [c] a person’s interests
3. [a] In the European Union, new regulations require tech companies to get consent before collecting data on users.
4. [d] all of the above
5. [a] the kinds of information tech companies track and how they use the data.
6. [d] hard to find.
7. [d] connected to a particular topic or matter.
8. [b] “for something you’re interested in”

QUIZ ►

New Life for the E.R.A.?
1. [b] It was passed by Congress.
2. [b] three-fourths
3. [d] the 19th Amendment.
4. [a] Although laws and court cases have improved conditions for women since the 1970s, an amendment would provide permanent protections.
5. [b] whether the E.R.A. would be good for women.
6. [c] something opponents of the E.R.A. feared could happen if the amendment were to be ratified.
7. [b] to show that some amendments have taken a very long time to win ratification
8. [d] women’s role in American society has changed since the 1970s.

GRAPH EXERCISE ►

Women at Work
1. [b] a third
2. [a] fell slightly
3. [c] chief executive
4. [b] 60 percent
5. [c] registered nurses are women

QUIZ ►

A New Chapter for North Korea?
1. [c] Kim said he would work to denuclearize North Korea, and Trump said the U.S. would suspend military exercises with South Korea.
2. [b] Japan
3. [b] North and South Korean troops stand guard.
4. [a] fear that Communism would spread
5. [b] thinks that Trump’s meeting with Kim was a mistake.
6. [d] that the Korean War never officially ended.
7. [a] allusion to a literary work
8. [b] “… the kind of totalitarian “Big Brother” state depicted in George Orwell’s 1984…”

VOCABULARY IN CONTEXT ►

Get a Clue
1. Part A [b]; Part B [c]
2. Part A [d]; Part B [a]
3. Part A [a]; Part B [d]
4. to bring back to life (synonym: revive)
5. the point or level at which something changes

CITE TEXT EVIDENCE ►

Find the Evidence
1. In May, Illinois became the 37th state to ratify the E.R.A.—46 years after Congress approved it (p. 6, column 3).
2. Women faced discrimination in employment, pay, and everyday situations like bank loans (p. 6, columns 1 and 2).
3. Social conservatives warned that the amendment would backfire on women, causing them to be drafted, etc. (p. 6, column 3).
4. Some people note that women still face harassment and disrespect, and they say that an amendment would offer more permanent protection of rights (p. 7, columns 2 and 3).

OBJECTIVE SUMMARY ►

Sum it up
Check that students have focused on central ideas and key details and have refrained from including their own opinions.

WRITING & LANGUAGE ►

Be the Editor
1. [c] Two other senators, Richard Blumenthal of Connecticut and Edward Markey of Massachusetts,
2. [d] European Union
3. [a] no change
4. [d] internet users’
5. [a] no change

WRITING & LANGUAGE ►

Organizing Ideas
What everyday life for North Koreans is like
Possible answers: they fear their leaders; they don’t have access to the internet; they’re taught to worship the Kim family as gods; there’s no free press/media, many live in poverty; can be arrested, forced to work in labor camps, or killed for challenging their leaders

How the U.S. and South Korea have attempted to negotiate with North Korea in recent years
Possible answers: The U.S. previously negotiated over North Korea’s nuclear program, U.S. imposed economic sanctions, South Korea invited North Korean athletes and officials to the 2018 Winter Olympics (held in South Korea), South Korean President Moon Jae-in met in person with Kim Jong Un in April 2018, and President Trump met with Kim in person in June 2018

The significance of the June 12, 2018, summit
Possible answers: Donald Trump and Kim Jong Un met in Singapore, it was the first time a sitting U.S. president met with a North Korean leader, the two leaders signed a joint statement, Kim agreed to work toward denuclearization in North Korea, Trump agreed to end military exercises with South Korea

SEPTEMBER 3, 2018 • UPFRONTMAGAZINE.COM